Vitality of The Jewish Race in Europe.

Very interesting papers on this subject are furnished in the Journal of the Statistical Society of Paris, and in the annals of Hygiene and Legal Medicine in the same city.—Our restricted limits will confine us to a brief notice of their contents. M. Legoyt, the author of the first of the papers, truly says: The history of the Jews is, in many respects, one of the grand episodes of modern civilization. We cannot but wonder at their persistent and eventually victorious struggle against implacable persecutions, instigated as well by religious hatred as by a desire to become possessed of their great riches; their force of expansion, which led them to emigrate to all parts of the known world; the concentration in their hands of a large part of international trade; the triple agency,—1, of an admirable special aptitude for trade and finance; of sounder notions of the power of credit, at a time when unproductive concealment and hoarding were the methods of saving; 3, their exclusion, by the laws of countries which tolerated their stay in them, from all active employments; the adhesion to their religion, notwithstanding the incessant endeavors to proselyte, which were often strengthened by the secular arm; the not less determined retention, in the land of their exile, of the manners, customs, and traditions of Judea; their refusal to mix with the races by which they were surrounded; finally, a certain energetic vitality, superior to those races which enables them to be readily acclimated in all parts of the world.

We behold in the Jews a people whose records show fewer marriages, a smaller number of children, and fewer deaths of them in a family, a smaller number of still-born, more old persons, fewer suicides, a larger mean duration of life. The Israelite weighs carefully the responsibilities and cares of matrimony, and is slower in taking on its bonds. If the marriages of his people are less fruitful, more time is allowed for a mother's care and tenderness, and hence the less proportionate mortality of Jewish children to the population at large. Mr. Legoyt expresses his surprise at the large number of Jews who live to a very advanced age. Their temperate habits explain in a good degree this favorable result.—Their sobriety has always been known; intoxication is rare—habitual drunkards can hardly be found. We see here a practical commentary on the saying of the celebrated Haller, that by far the larger number of those who were noted for their longevity were sober and lived plainly.

To this course the Jews would be naturally led by the dietetic inculcations of the Mosaic laws. The love of family, so strong in the Jewish people, insures constant care of the children and the aged, and to their poor assured and judicious assistance. Their charity is without limit. Their fortitude and serenity of mind under trials are marked features of their character, and can only be accounted for by their deep faith and confidingness in an overruling Providence.

The Jewish population in the different countries of Europe is estimated, in a table before us, to be 3,692,132, Prussia not included. Russia contains the largest number, 1,425,784. Next comes Austria, 1,048,174. Third on the list is Poland, 599,875. England shows 45,000 and Ireland the lowest figure of all, being only 322. The National Almanac for 1864 sets down the Jewish population of the United States at 200,000. This is an estimate and evidently not too high.

An Honorable Negro.

The Richmond Enquirer relates an instance of rare honesty, in a colored man, which we take pleasure in circulating by giving it a place in our columns:

"All of our people are familiar with John Dabney, the celebrated colored restaurateur of our city, and those who know him place the most implicit confidence in his honor, and a circumstance which came to our knowledge a few days since proves how worthily this confidence is bestowed.

Wishing to purchase his own and his wife's freedom, John, some years back, applied to his master, who, although John, as a celebrated caterer and bar-tender, was a very valuable servant, readily acceded (as was the universal custom of Southern gentlemen) to the request, and agreed to let John purchase himself and wife for many hundred dollars less than their value, and to pay him as he could make it convenient.

John went to work manfully and paid for his wife, but at the close of the war still owed his master a balance of two hundred dollars on his purchase. There were not wanting advisers, who, with the peculiar ideas of honesty entertained by some people, urged John not to pay the balance of the debt. "Ain't you free anyhow?" they urged, but John replied, "No, my master acted like a gentleman to me; he let me buy myself and my wife cheap; I owe him the money honestly, and I intend to pay it." And he kept his word, and a few days ago, despite the hard times, John discharged the obligation in full.

Such conduct evinces a regard for honor which would ennoble any man, and John will stand (and deservedly (higher than ever in the estimation of every Richmond gentleman.—John belongs to that numerous and respectable portion of our colored population who give Wardwell and Hunnicutt the cold shoulder, attend to their own business, pay their debts, and with a sagacity which does credit to their understanding, rely for their support upon their old masters who will, they know, (despite the malicious fabrications of a few ignorant calumniators,) prove themselves in the future, as they have ever done in the past, their best and truest friends."

NORTH CAROLINA, THE SWITZERLAND OF AMERICA.—The New York Watchman, edited by Dr. Deems, a weekly paper which should be in every family in the South, says, of the mountains of North Carolina: "We know something of that wonderful land, and nothing we have seen in America, and nothing in Europe, except the view of the Oberland Alps, as seen from Berne, has produced such an impression of the uplifted grandeur of nature as the scenes in Western North Carolina. Majestic and fatherly, serene and motherly, almost saintly and fervently, the mighty hills stand over the gentle valleys with a presence that is protection and a benediction. Upon the opening of easier communication, we have two or three artist friends, and divers wealthy New York acquaintances, who, if words can be persuasive, shall see sights which will make their Adirondacks, and Western New York, except Niagara, seem very simple bits of Nature's handiwork."

LAND FOR SALE.

THE undersigned, as Executor of Samuel W. Branch, deceased, will offer at public vendue, to the highest bidder, on the First Monday in November next, the tract of Land belonging to the estate of the said Samuel W. Branch, on which the said Samuel W. Branch resided at the time of his death.

The said tract of Land is situated in Halifax county, North Carolina, about two miles east of Enfield, which is the nearest Depot. It contains twelve hundred acres, about two thirds of which are cleared and in cultivation. One hundred acres of the cultivated lands are low grounds of the finest quality. The upland has inexhaustable supplies of marl, of easy access, and is as well adapted to the growth of cotton as any upland plantation in the State. There is a good Dwelling-house, Gin-house, Still-house and out-houses on the Land, an Apple Orchard, in good bearing, sufficient to make ten barrels Brandy, and altogether the plantation is one of the most desirable in the State.

At least three thousand dollars will be required in cash. A credit of one, two and three years will be allowed on the remainder of the purchase money, which must be unexceptionably secured by personal security, or the purchaser may pay all cash at his option. The title, which is indisputable, will be retained until the purchase money is paid. Persons who may desire to purchase can have an opportunity of riding over the plantation by calling at the dwelling. Possession will be given on the 1st of January next.

JOHN R. BRANCH,
BENJ. F. GARY,
Ex'rs of Samuel W. Branch, dec'd.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered,

PETER R. DAVIS,
Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. CRAIG.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

"The Best We Can Get."

The whole character of the Howard amendment, the history of events attending its passage, and all subsequent developments, demonstrate that it was not intended, and that it is not now expected, that the South should agree to it. It was so framed that its passage might be impossible. If we are not in error, (and if we are we will cheerfully make the proper correction,) a resolution was offered in Congress, after the adoption of the Howard amendment, declaring that, upon its ratification by the non-represented States, the "loyal" members elect from those States should receive admission into Congress, but it was summarily rejected. The New York Independent, Butler, Senator Sherman, of Ohio, and, within the past few days, Sumner, of Massachusetts, have all emphatically declared that the States of the South cannot 'get back" upon the simple adoption of that amendment. They assert that their restoration is contingent upon a voluntary concession of negro suffrage,—a concession which they will never make, at least for, so far as we can see, an indefinite period.

The Radical faction in Congress foresaw that the South would not ratify the Constitutional amendment. Studiously keeping out of view the more dangerous and subversive features of the measure, they have presented, in all their addresses and arguments, to the Northern mind, only the specious ideas of representation based on popular suffrage, disfranchisement of leading "rebels," &c. They have invested it with an aspect of fairness and plausibility, by appeals to the passions and prejudices of section, while they persistently fail to disclose the danger to civil liberty, the perversion of the theory of the government, and the destruction of the inherent rights of the States, that insidiously lurk beneath the surface. It is their calculation and design, when the South shall reject, as they know or hope they will, this Constitutional amendment, thus presented to the Northern eye in the fascinating garb of political equality, and with a feature proposing to punish those whom they regard as the cause of the war, to use the fact as further evidence of the "contumacy" of our people and proof that the "spirit of rebellion" is still alive.

Do what we may, we cannot please the Radical leaders. A ratification of the Howard amendment, as we have seen, will be far from appeasing them. An absolute voluntary surrender of every right and immunity we possess, of all our manhood, would only furnish them a fresh and, in that event, a just pretext for spurning us and treading us under the foot of scorn and humiliation. A manly, dignified patience under existing and threatened evils, and a firm reliance on Providence and a returning sense of reason and justice among the people of the North, are our true and wisest policy. He who advises the adoption of the Howard amendment by the South, with all the lights now before us, is an enemy to her people and no friend of the Union. He is either controlled by sinister and bad motives, and by the expectation of reward, or he is the mere timid or ignorant dupe of designing men.

THE WHITE CITIZENS of New-York, Illinois, and other Northern States may vote for and represent the alien population. In Tennessee, one-third of the white citizens vote for and represent the other two-thirds. In Maryland and Missouri, one half votes for and represents the other half. At the North, under the Howard amendment, population, not suffrage, remains the test of representation; while at the South, striking out from a third to a half of the Southern population, suffrage is made the test. Is this "fair and impartial?"

The State Legislature.

The candidates for the State Legislature are generally being brought out in all the Counties of the State, without the usual resort to caucuses or County meetings. The number of candidates in some Counties is large, most of them running upon their own hook.

The importance of the next Legislature demands the services of our most pure, discreet and intelligent men. Whether that class of gentlemen will be selected the election will determine.

The most important national issue, as we have repeatedly said, is whether North Carolina will adopt the proposed Congressional (Howard) Constitutional amendment. If we can judge correctly the public temper, there is almost universal opposition to the measure, yet there are numbers of timid people who seem to think that we had better take that than something worse,—This idea is a grossly deceptious one. The very Congress that adopted that amendment refused, by a large majority, to say that the adoption of that amendment, by the Southern States, would be satisfactory to the North and would insure the admission of Southern Senators and Representatives. The Radical leaders and papers boldly affirm that nothing short of universal negro suffrage will give the South any ground whatever to hope for admission. There is a settled purpose on the part of the Radical majority not to admit ten of the Southern States before the next Presidential election on any terms, certainly not unless we grant universal negro suffrage.

The Howard amendment cannot pass unless several of the Southern States adopt it. The Southern State or citizen who votes for it, under any circumstances, becomes a traitor to the Constitution and government formed by our fathers. If that amendment were to pass we should most certainly, as we have clearly shown, give the Radical Congress the power to force universal negro suffrage upon the Southern States, and to accomplish any other object they aim at necessary to secure a Radical consolidated government and the utter, irrevocable ruin of the South. So confident of this are we, that if it pass, we should advise every white man to leave the South if he could raise the means to leave. The Howard amendment is nothing less than a consolidation, negro suffrage movement. The people of North Carolina should, therefore, certainly not consent to put it in the power of Congress to force that measure upon us.—If we are compelled to come to it, let it be without our consent.

Matters of much State interest will also come before the Legislature, requiring much thought and wise legislation, the maintenance of the credit of the State and people, the best protection which can be given to debtors against oppression and ruin, the education of the children in the Public Schools, and the interests of the State and people in the Railroads. Let men be selected with a view to all these interests.

The Northern Elections.

It is popularly supposed that the Vermont and Maine elections show enormous Radical gains over last year, when the fact is that the increase of votes is largely in favor of the Conservatives. In Maine, for instance, the per centage of increase was 25 per cent. in favor of the Conservatives, and only 5 per cent. for the Radicals.

So in Connecticut, in which municipal elections were held on Monday last, the first reports stated that the Radicals had carried the State by increased majorities. The latest returns, however, exhibit decided gains for the Conservatives. In one third of the towns, thus far heard from, the triumph over Radicalism is signal and complete.

Our telegraphic dispatches, on yesterday, brought the gratifying intelligence that the patriotic little State of Delaware had been swept by the Conservatives.

On Tuesday next, the elections take place in the great States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. We are pleased to observe, within the past ten days, a growing confidence and enthusiasm on the part of the friends of the President in those States,—in Pennsylvania, particularly; and we are not without great hope that they will succeed in making the most decided inroads upon the Radical strength. A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Harrisburg, says:

"Public sentiment has certainly undergone a change in this part of the State within the past fortnight. The miscegenation Convention at Philadelphia, the blood-thirsty speeches of Ben Butler, and the admission of Wendell Phillips that the constitutional amendment was only a blind for election purposes this fall, and that negro suffrage and social equality was the little game in the back ground, have contributed to make the Democratic party a unit, and have nerved them to the struggle in a manner that their antagonists little dream of. The constitutional amendment per se is by no means obnoxious to the mass of the people; but from what intimations that have fallen from the lips of men high in the Republican party, they are forced to believe that there is something behind this of such a monstrous character that it would be unsafe to vote for the amendment.—Even the masses have no idea of aiding or countenancing, in any way, negro insurrections at the South, and, fearful that the election of a Radical Congress of the Stevens and Butler stripe may tend to this end, they hang back, shudder at the idea of the thing, and declare that there is nothing left for them but to vote the Clymer ticket after all."

GEN. ALFRED DOCKERY is the Radical-Holden candidate for Governor of North Carolina. He is embalmed thus in "Mother Goose Melodies:"

"Dickery, Dockery, Dock,
The mouse ran up the clock.
The clock struck one, and down he'come,
Dickery, Dockery, Dock"

[Norfolk Virginian.

We beg to inform our cotemporary that Gen. Dockery declined to be the Holden candidate for Governor, but endorses in the main the position of the Holdenite meeting.

Mr. H. J. Raymond soon got as sick of conservatism as a mud-fish of pure water.—Louisville Journal.

OUR OLD FRIEND Gen. Dockery has always enjoyed the reputation of being a prudent and cautious politician. In declining the recent nomination for Governor, at the hands of the Radical squad that assembled in the back room of the Standard office, he exhibited such excellent judgment as fully to sustain that reputation. He saw very plainly that an overwhelming and humiliating defeat awaited him, in the event of his acceptance. No man, much less a gentleman of the General's rather proverbial vanity, is willing to be "set up" for the simple sport of being "knocked down again,"—even when specially requested to do so for the special delectation of such eminent patriots as the immortal eighteen who sanctified the Standard office with their presence.

It must be a source of profound gratification to Gov. Worth to witness the almost unanimous exhibition of popular desire for his re-election. It is a compliment to the integrity, conservatism and fairness of his administration of which any public officer might well be proud.

Months ago the Radical squad determined on opposition to Gov. Worth. They employed the most desperate efforts, and made the most touching appeals, to get up a Convention, which, after all, was attended by but a dozen and a half patriots—about one dozen of whom were North Carolinians. That the Convention was such an abortion is evidence of the patriotism and good sense of the people; that Gen. Dockery refused to be victimized by it is evidence of the good sense of the "General."

Guilford County.

The Conservative Union men of Guilford have brought out an excellent ticket: Peter Adams, Esq., for the Senate, and Messrs. J. T. Morehead, Jr., W. R. Smith, and Jos. A. Houston for the Commons. They all sustain the President's policy in opposition to the Howard amendment. Jonathan Harris is the Radical candidate for the Senate, and supports, we understand, the Howard amendment.

The Trial of Jefferson Davis.

Last June at Richmond, Mr. Reed, as counsel for Mr. Davis, asked the Circuit Court of the United States, in solemn and apparently regular session, with its full apparatus of marshals and clerks and tipstaves, what disposition was to be made of his client's case: "If this case," said he, "is ever to be tried, speaking for my colleagues and myself and my absent client, I say with emphasis and I say with earnestness, we come here prepared instantly to try it." To this appeal the Court said, with precision and with apparent sincerity, that the case should be tried, and tried at Richmond, and that the Chief Justice had indicated the first Tuesday of October as the time that would best suit him to assist in the great state trial. The first Tuesday of October has come; Richmond stands where it did; the counsel, we learn, are on the spot, "prepared instantly to try this case;" the prisoner, worn by long confinement, supplicates for justice, and lo! the same court, the same judge, and the same chief-justice announce to the world that the whole judicial procedure of last June was illegal, and absolutely a nullity. It arises in this way, and we are glad to have the means of stating the fact with accuracy.

Anterior to the war the Circuit Court of the United States sat at Richmond. On the 26th of February, 1864, an act of Congress was passed removing the court to Norfolk, there and at no other place to be held. Underwood was appointed District Judge, and as such held a Circuit Court at Norfolk last May, at which an indictment for treason was found against Mr. Davis. On the 5th of May, Underwood took it into his head that Congress had passed an act authorizing a restoration of the court to Richmond, and to Richmond he adjourned, with all his judicial apparatus, and there, as we have seen, solemnly held his court. Now it so happens that this act did not pass till the 22d May, seventeen days after Underwood had made his transit, and that the whole procedure in June was an imposture, a farce, a nullity. Had Mr. Davis been then tried, it would have been coram non judice; and had he been convicted, the judgment could not have stood. Now the difficulty is for the court to extricate itself and save its credit. This is rendered the more difficult by the fact that counsel are on the ground ready, and by the invitation of the judge himself! It is to our mind a perfect scandal on the administration of the law.—N. Y. World.

NORTH CAROLINA PETROLEUM AND MINING COMPANY.—The capital of this company is stated to be $500,000, par value of shares $5, number of shares 100,000; 20,000 shares reserved for working capital. It owns 14,000 acres of mineral lands in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockinham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan rivers in North Carolina, which abound in deposits of coal, iron, salt, and, from general surface indications, in petroleum or coal oil. The company has been incorporated by the State of North Carolina. Practical and efficient men are now on the lands, with all requisite force and machinery, engaged in boring a well with flattering prospects of success.

Professor Simmons and Commodore Wilkes have made elaborate reports which, it is said, will enable all to judge of the value of the large area owned by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Company. In order to develop the property the directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold at the par value of $5, in order to raise a working capital. The Office is the Banking Office of Brenizer, Kellogg & Co., Greensboro,' N. C., where we presume subscriptions will be received.—Rich. Dispatch.

Paid Off and Discharged.

(From the Hartford Times.)

The political vagrants, whom the "Southern Loyalists" sent vagabondizing about the country, preaching vengeance and fury upon the South, have proved a bad investment, and the Republican General Committee, who have them in charge, and who hired and paid them by the day for their labor, have become alarmed, and are about to abandon them to their fate. Outside of New England, they are no attraction. Yet the effect of their speeches, by opening the eyes of many simple-minded Republicans to the true nature of the doctrines and character of their party, has been so good and so marked, that the Democracy could well afford to hire them to continue the work from which their opponents suddenly show a disposition to "back out."

JUDGE BARNES.—A correspondent from Duplin county speaks in the highest terms of Judge Barnes, who presided at the term of the Superior Court for that county held last week. He is represented as a prompt and determined officer, and a most efficient Judge. The law-abiding people of the county were much pleased with him.—Wil. Journal.

The Constitutional Amendment not Sufficient,—Negro Suffrage the Only Basis of Reconstruction.

From the New York Independent.

We gave some few days ago a short paragraph from this paper, which is one of the leading Radical journals in the North, advocating the principles stated above. The following, in which Mr. Tilton reiterates his former statements more in detail, may be of interest as showing the real views of the Radical party:

"The Radical party, North and South, white and black, can assent to no reconstruction short of impartial suffrage. Is Congress already committed to a less perfect plan? Not at all. Congress is not committed for or against impartial suffrage. It has not tied its hands against the future. It is free to act as the emergency may require. If, next winter, it shall choose to make impartial suffrage the condition of restoration, it can do so, and Christian souls will cry amen. We know personally every prominent member of Congress, and we know that the leaders do not mean to admit the unadmitted States on the mere adoption of the amendment. Moreover, we know personally the leading Radicals of the Republican party outside of Congress, and we know that they have no intention of making the amendment the final measure of admission. To say, therefore, as the National Committee say, that, on condition of adopting the amendment, as Tennessee adopted it, "the doors stand invitingly open" for the ten other States, is to make a promise to the ear to break it to the hope. There is a door, however, that does "stand invitingly open," and whenever these States shall choose to enter though it they will be received with shouts, thanksgiving and benedictions. It is the golden gate of impartial justice.

It is asked, why then was Tennessee admitted on the basis of the amendment? In the first place, Tennessee ought not to have been admitted on such a basis; her admission was a mingled crime and blunder. But the apology which Congress made for her admission was, that her attitude was exceptional—that her case was not to be a precedent for the ten other States. Already the admission of Tennessee, without impartial suffrage, proves the peril of admitting any of the other States except on this only safe condition. Her Legislature is about to remedy the deficiency of Congress, by enacting impartial suffrage at the next session. The Tennesseans who asked for the admission of their State, without impartial suffrage, said at Philadelphia that no remaining State of the ten could be safely admitted except with this guarantee.

We therefore repeat that Congress is not pledged, either by an existing offer of terms to the unreconstructed States, or by the precedent of Tennessee, to make the Constitutional amendment the basis of representation.

To say, with the Syracuse Republican Convention, or with the address of the National Republican Committee, that Congress will restore the ten waiting States if these States adopt the amendment, is to misrepresent the issue.

Admirable is the National Committee's logic, compact and iron-bound, to prove the power of Congress over the question of reconstruction.—We joyfully assent to the argument. But, if Congress has an absolute right to dictate the basis of reconstruction, then what right has the National Committee to pledge and bind Congress in advance? Is Congress, after rejecting the dictation of the President, to submit to the dictation of the National Committee? In the name of the Radical party, whose heart we know, and whose voice we speak, we repudiate the Committee's pledge to the Rebels as wholly unauthorized, invalid and void."

Davidson County.

Henry Walser, Esqr., has, we learn, retired from the canvass for the Legislature in this county. We presume he did it in order to preserve harmony among the Conservatives. The Conservative candidates in that county are as follows, viz: For the Senate, Gen. J. M. Leach; for the Commons, C. F. Lowe, Esq., and Dr. J. H. Shelton. Messrs. Leach and Lowe are well known to every citizen of the county. Dr. Shelton is a young gentleman of character and great popularity, and we think there is no doubt of the election of the whole ticket by a handsome majority.

The opposition, or Radical ticket, consists of Thomas P. Allen, Esq., for the Senate, and Isaac Kinney and J. W. Hilton, for the Commons. We have before noticed Messrs. Kinney and Hilton. Mr. Allen is a gentleman of character and talent, and we have nothing to say against him except the radical tendency of his politics.—Old North State.

FUNERAL OF CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS IN KENTUCKY.—On Tuesday of last week, the bodies of ten Confederate soldiers, two of whom were shot by order of Gen. Burbidge some two years ago, in retaliation for the murder of a Union citizen of Scott County, Kentucky, by guerrillas, were re-interred with great pomp in the cemetery at Georgetown, Kentucky.

The funeral cortege was composed of nearly six thousand soldiers and citizens, at the head of whom rode Col. Basil Duke, formerly of Gen. Morgan's command. Mrs. Morgan, the widow of the gallant General, also occupied a seat in one of the carriages in the procession.—Two orations were delivered—one by Rev. Mr. Holland, formerly a chaplain in Howard Smith's regiment, of Morgan's command, and one by Rev. Mr. McGinn, a Campbelite minister, at Georgetown.

Some weeks ago, the North Carolina Standard informed the Times that Mr. Alfred Dockery, of Richmond County, was not the "Holden candidate, but the candidate of the Union party." The redoubtable General, as we supposed, was not so far gone in senility as to be the candidate of the 18, who constituted the mass meeting recently held in the sanctum of the Editor of the Standard, and consequently has written a letter declining the nomination, which will be found in another column. The last issue of the Standard, despite the letter, insists upon running him. Dockery is not a candidate of the 18, nor on his own hook; then he must be the candidate of Mr. W. W. Holden, and, if he is voted for at all, these are the terms upon which it must be done. Then every vote given for Dockery is one, impliedly, for "San Salvador."—Charlotte Times.

RELIGION AND POLITICS.—While Gen. C. C. Battle was in Philadelphia attending the late National Union Convention, being a zealous man for Sabbath Schools, he went to a publising house to which he was recommended and inquired if they could get up a Sabbath School library unexceptional in sentiment to the South. They replied, "We have no such books, nor would we publish such if they were offered us." He then went to the "American Baptist Society," made similar inquiries, and received in substance the same reply.

A correspondent of the Boston Commonwealth, Sumner's organ, speaks of General Grant as a "person of limited information and commonplace ideas, with some obstinate prejudices, and not a superabundance of intelligent convictions."

The Federal band in Raleigh is going to play on the square. Wish the Radical band in Congress would act similarly.—Petersburg Index.

Both tracts are in good condition. Dr. Plummer never made less than 17 bushels wheat per acre on these farms—frequently more.
The locality is as healthy and the neighborhood as refined as any in the State. It is in every respect desirable, and it is seldom such a place is offered at auction. One of the subscribers resides on the place, and will show it to any one wishing to see it. Possession will be given 1st. January, but the privilege of seeding wheat granted immediately.

Subscribers at Morrisville, and also at Haw River, specially complain.—These papers are regularly directed and put up at this office, sent to the Depot and delivered to the Route Agents. We beg to call their special attention to the matter.

Our cotemporary of the Goldsboro News also complains. We send the Sentinel to that paper by Express. We shall send it by mail hereafter.

EMIGRANTS.—We learn that the principal conductor of the emigrants for the North-West, who passed through this city a few days ago, told a friend in this city, that they were leaving North Carolina, because of their unwillingness to be put upon a footing with the negro population, which they were satisfied, the Radicals were aiming at.

See first and fourth pages.

Gen. Butler is for another war. If his rage for spoons isn't satisfied, he must be a regular "spooney." No wonder he is so busy at this time, for one so addicted to teaspons must be a stirring fellow.

GENERAL NEWS.

MISCEGENATION.—The good citizens of West Chester, Pennsylvania, were terribly shocked the other day in witnessing a number of young ladies linked arm in arm with the same number of negroes, and in this plight attending a Radical demonstration. There were between twenty and thirty couples thus linked.—Constitutional Union.

NEW ENGLAND MORALS.—The Springfield (Mass.) Union says that "sensualism, in all its most beastly and disgusting forms of licentiousness and profligacy, is on a rapid increase in all parts of New England cities and towns, and nobody can blink it out of sight without doing violence to his knowledge and sincerity."

THE NATIONAL EXPRESS.—Meetings have been held in Charleston and Augusta, urging the Board of Directors to reorganize the Company. George A. Trenholm presided at the Charleston meeting, and in both the greatest enthusiasm prevailed and liberal tenders of support were made.

The Radicals are guilty of what they pretend to consider a crime. They make "invidious distinctions on account of color;" they give a black soldier, because he is black, three times as much bounty as they give to a white soldier.

Rev. J. N. Wheelock, rector of Grace Church, Memphis, officiated on Sunday week, and died of cholera the next day.

Ex-President Buchanan spends most of his time, it is said, telling stories about his administration. The old gentleman is evidently in his anec-dotage.

At Cleveland the generals and the soldiers were honored who fought hardest against the rebels; at Pittsburg those who stole spoons and hung their owners.

A base ball struck and killed a negro boy in Annapolis.

To what color does flogging turn a boy's complexion? It makes him Yell-Oh!

A New York daily offered Dickens $800 for a story.

The Tribune employs a flash Englishman in London to abuse the President.

A Lockport, N. Y., druggist was fined $800 for incorrectly preparing a prescription.

Dan Rice's big elephant went on a raid in Utica the other night, and consumed the contents of three gardens.

They have named a race horse "Carl Schurz" because he was so good for running.

A Radical editor asks, "Shall we kill the fatted calf?" He must be thinking of suicide.

Prentice says Congress has "negro on the brain," but precious little brain on the negro.

Almost all the governments of Europe are reorganizing their armies on the Prussian model, or preparing to do so.

In fifteen years licentiousness and dissipation reduced the population of the Sandwich Islands from 140,000 to 70,000.

A poor negro on trial for his life in Alabama is furnished able counsel by his old master.

A London baker was lately fined twenty shillings for refusing to weigh a loaf of bread.

Gen. Pritchard, who captured Jeff. Davis, is a Republican candidate for Congress from Michigan.

The St. Louis Democrat is a Republican paper, and the St. Louis Republican is a Democratic sheet.

Squibs from Prentice.

Some Radical editors that we know of ought to travel cheap on railroads and steamboats. Half a man should pay but half a fare.

Nothing can exceed Brownlow's disgraceful conduct as a parson except Brownlow's disgraceful conduct as a Governor.

Gen. Butler was greeted at the Pittsburg Convention with "three cheers and a tiger." Pity the tiger had'nt been one of the Bengal breed, let loose upon him.

The Radical policy as to suffrage is very plain. It is written in black and white—especially black.

We trust that the Radical party will soon have a tight-fitting suit of sackcloth and ashes. Andrew Johnson officiating as tailor.

The leading Radicals never knew or felt anything of war, except when they had, respectively, intestine wars and commotions of their own, brought on by cholic and treated with pills of rhubarb instead of pills of lead.

In a late fight in Michigan, two legs, three arms, and one skull were broken. The people there must have the "break bone fever."

Case of Jeff. Davis---Anticipated Efforts in his Behalf.

RICHMOND, October 2.—The opinion is expressed here that the counsel of Jeff. Davis will ere long test the efficacy of a writ of habeas corpus awarded by Judge Lyons or Meredith, of this city; and if they fail to make the application, it is expected the bar of Richmond will hold a meeting to discuss the propriety of that proceeding on the part of one of their number. —Telegram to Wash. Chron.

Declines the Honor.

We lay before our readers this week the letter of Gen. Dockery, declining the Radical nomination for Governor. His endorsement of the platform and of the Howard Amendment is rather equivocal, and would only accept them for fear of getting something worse. Holden evidently has a spite at the old man, and is going to run him anyhow. It seems to be a matter of pride with the Ex-P. G. to have some one in the State that will be as badly beaten for Governor as he was. It is natural—misery loves company. —Winston Sentinel.

"THE HOWARD AMENDMENT."—The people are determined to have a full understanding from every candidate as to his views on the Howard Amendment. The more it is discussed, the more unanimous and decided is the opposition; and if the election were a little further off, we do not believe that a single advocate of it would be elected to the next Legislature. The signs on this subject are unmistakable, and Holden, Dockery & Co., may look out for such a political Waterloo as has never before befallen any party in this State.—Greensboro Patriot.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR Maggiel's Pills and Salve.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

The Little Cup of Tears.

The following beautiful German legend is told in "Thorpe's Yule-tide Stories:"

"It relates that a mother who had lost a darling little daughter sorrowed day and night for her as one without hope, and that for three days and three nights she neither ate nor drank anything, but wept in the bitterness of her soul.—The third night, as she thus sat overcome with suffering, in the place where her child had died, her eyes bathed in tears and faint from grief, the door softly opened and the mother started, for before her stood her departed child. It had become a heavenly angel, and smiled sweetly as innocence, and was beautiful like the blessed. It had in its hand a cup that was running over, so full it was. And the child spoke: 'Oh! dearest mother, weep no more for me; the angel of mourning has collected in this little cup the tears which you have shed for me. If for me you shed but one tear more, it will overflow, I shall have no more rest in the grave, and no joy in heaven. Therefore, O dearest mother! weep no more for your child; for it is well and happy, and angels are its companions.' It then vanished. The mother shed no more tears, that she might not disturb her child's joy in heaven."

UNLUCKY WEDDING DAYS.—Every nation is more or less troubled with superstitious fears respecting marriage and death. Days and months are singled out as unlucky for marriage, and are avoided as stendily and persistently as if a dread something stood before them in the future. It is the same in regard to death on certain days, and the after happiness or misery of the deceased is made to depend greatly on the season and the day which they shake off the mortal coil. The nations of Northern Europe seem to cling to these superstitions longer than any others, and the Scotch probably longest of all. With them, even to this day, Saturday is an "unlucky" day for marriage, and none are performed on that day, and very few on Sunday. The last day of December, when it does not fall on Saturday or Sunday, is the great wedding day of the Scots. The average for several years on that day was 1,055, while for any month of the year besides the daily marriages would not average 75. When the 31st of December falls on Saturday, however, superstition rules the day, and the marriage record is nearly a blank; but the day previous is usually taken in its stead. Something similar, but not to such an extent, prevails in Sweden and Norway.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse., makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
